THE GREATEST care should be taken in what we eat and drink, yet we are too often indifferent and careless, notwithstanding health depends on what we eat and drink.

In regard to drink nothing but the best should be taken. It costs no more than the inferior quality, if people would only ask for what they know is the best. Old Scotch Whisky is the most wholesome beverage yet known. Mackie's Scotch Whisky gives an undoubted guarantee to those who are not judges of quality.

CITY ANALYST'S LABORATORY,
138 BATH STREET,
GLASGOW, 8th October, 1906.

I hereby certify that I have taken samples of every vatting of Mackie's White Horse Cellar Blend of Scotch Whisky used in bottling during the month of September, and the results of my analyses indicate that it conforms to the standard for Pot Still Scotch Whisky set up in the London case. I am also of opinion that it is an old Whisky of excellent quality and flavour, which has been well matured in wood.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The "Aida."
H.H.S. "Aida" left Suez on Sunday for a cruise in the Red Sea.

Troops for the Yemen.
The Turkish transport S.S. "Al Shark" is on its way to Hodeida from Smyrna with 530 troops.

The Mecca Pilgrimage.
The Algerian Sheikh el Senoussi accompanied by 1,000 Algerian pilgrims have left Suez for Mecca.

Troopships.
The troopship "Dongola" left Suez on Sunday afternoon bound for Karachi. The "Assaye," which is homeward bound, is due at Suez on the 16th inst.

The Greek Census.
It is estimated that the Greek colony of Egypt is about 200,000, of which 24,000 are resident in Cairo and a minimum of 30,000 in Alexandria.

Cairo-Alexandria Trains.
The normal working of the trains was resumed yesterday evening over the Tewfik bridge at Benha and the service of trains between Cairo and Alexandria is now proceeding without interruption.

Ottoman Railway Lottery.
The Imperial Ottoman Bank at Alexandria has received a cable from Constantinople to the effect that the "30s lot" in the Ottoman Railway lottery of the 30th November has been drawn by the number 1,656,944.

Theft of Bank Notes.
The day before yesterday a judge of the Native Courts, living at Ramleh, was the victim of a thief who has successfully, up to the present, absconded with bank notes to the value of L.E. 660, which were extracted from a drawer of his desk. The efforts of the police to obtain a clue have so far been absolutely fruitless.

Enech Barrage.
A rumour has been current to the effect that the Irrigation Department are suspending all work in the way of erecting new pumps, etc., until the completion of the Enech Barrage. This is entirely without foundation, as any works of this nature which have been contemplated will be carried out in the ordinary way, the barrage affecting them in no way.

Cairo to Luxor.
Last night the ordinary winter service of the trains de luxe between Cairo and Alexandria was commenced, and there will therefore be no sleeping cars attached to the 8 p.m. train. The trains de luxe will leave Cairo at 6 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays, and Luxor at the same hour on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Sundays.

Return of the Congo Pigmies.
The pigmies from the Ituri Forest who were brought over to England by Colonel Harrison have left on their return to the Congo Forest. Colonel Harrison will join them at Port Said, whence the party will travel via Mombasa, Uganda, and Toro to the Ituri. The pigmies are in good health. Col. Harrison, after seeing his charges safely home, hopes to return to England next May.

Creek Steamer Wrecked.
The Hellenic steamer "Anonymos" has been wrecked on its way to Alexandria from Cyprus, carrying a cargo of carib. The steamer was caught in a storm near the coast of Cyprus and lost her rudder; her engines also broke down and she was thrown on the rocks. Her crew of 25 escaped in a boat, and one man had both legs broken. The "Anonymos" was of 1500 tons and was insured with the Adriatic.

Hedjaz Railway.
The S.S. "Cosova" of the Mahaness Company is shortly leaving Constantinople for Sinoe to take 10,000 sleepers for the Hedjaz Railway which are lying there ready for shipment. Salih Yousoufoglou Izren, a wealthy Mahomedan merchant established at Moscow, has contributed £t. 400 to the Railway fund in his name and in the name of his two sons. The financial commission of the Railway has £t. 200 from two Mahomedans of Cosova in the Crimea.

Lord Cromer and Tropical Medicine.
Lord Cromer has notified his willingness to become an honorary vice president of the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine. Lord Cromer's long experience in a sub-tropical country has given him ample opportunities of observing the progress that has been made of late years in tropical medicine. He has taken a special interest in the anti-malarial operations which have been carried on with such success at Ismailia. Under the superintendence of Professor Ronald Ross, Ismailia, which used to be a hotbed of malaria, is now absolutely free of the scourge.

"The Geisha" at the Alhambra.
An appreciative and crowded assembly witnessed a performance of that excellent musical comedy, "The Geisha," at the Alhambra last night. The celebrated R-man company, the Lirica Lillipuziana, were the entertainers, and were it not for the use of the Italian language, Englishmen present could have fancied themselves at the London theatre where the play was first produced. The acting reached a high standard, and the singing was also extremely good. Special mention should be made of A. Di Castro, Silvio Darianzo, and Alfredo De Marco amongst the gentlemen—the latter being particularly humorous as Wum Hi—and Maria Ceccarelli, Dora Theor, and Elvira Motti, amongst the ladies. The artistes well merited the hearty applause which greeted them at frequent intervals during the progress of the play. The scenery, which was very realistic, also deserves favourable mention.

WORLD'S HEAVY WEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP.

(Gazette's Special Service.)

LONDON, Tuesday.
At the contest for the world's heavyweight boxing championship at the National Sporting Club, Burns of America beat Moir of England in the tenth round. It was a very poor fight.

DEATH OF FATHER SCHMIDT.

(Gazette's Special Service.)

LONDON, Tuesday.
Father Schmidt, the head of the Roman Catholic Hospice at Jerusalem, has died at Cologne as a result of an accident.

THE KHEVIVE.

Yesterday morning the Khedive received the Duke of Brunswick, Sir Eldon Gorst, Baron de Viegilben, Mr. P. W. Macbell, and Hassan Bey Hassib, who presented Hassan Pasha Wassef and Mustapha Bey Maher. In the afternoon his Highness returned the visit of the Duke of Brunswick at Shepherd's Hotel. The Khedive afterwards drove out to Koubbeh Palace, where he spent the night.

LORD CROMER FUND.

At an informal meeting of British residents at Alexandria, called by Mr. Robert J. Moss, and held at the Union Club yesterday afternoon, it was proposed by Judge Sanders and seconded by Mr. P. W. Carver, that the farewell testimonial to Lord Cromer should take the shape of a yearly prize or scholarship, to be competed for by the pupils of Victoria College, irrespective of nationality. This proposal was carried unanimously. It was further proposed, firstly to appoint a committee, composed of the following:—H. P. Kingham, Robert J. Moss (Chairman), V. P. Naggier, Judge Sanders, and W. T. Smith. Secondly that Messrs. Russell Kerr and Wyatt be asked to undertake the keeping of accounts, and, thirdly, that the Anglo-Egyptian Bank be asked to receive subscriptions.

GOLD RETURNS.

The imports of gold to Egypt from November 24 to 30 totalled L.E. 47,964 and the exports L.E. 9,674, making the figures for the whole month of November L.E. 919,470 and L.E. 26,239 respectively.

THE EGYPTIAN ARMY.

Nothing influences a man of any race, says a correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph," more than a sense of personal loyalty and responsibility to his Sovereign. It seems, therefore, a matter to be regretted that the young native officer is not presented to his Highness the Khedive until he has reached the rank of Bimbashi. What reason could be urged against his being presented on joining the Army, as in England, it is difficult to understand, for the effect could be nothing but good. I do not, of course, mean to convey the impression that the young officer is perfect, either in disinterestedness or in devotion to duty, but his training is daily giving him a more genuine and more deep rooted patriotic sense.

STORM AT ATBARA.

Our Suakin correspondent, writing on the 21st ult. says: "To-day a fierce wind, which raised veritable clouds of dust, prevailed at Atbara, and caused great inconvenience to all who had to go out of doors. Indeed, people had to cover their faces to prevent the dust of the streets from smothering them, and as a result of this government clerk, blinded by his protective shield, was run over and killed by a shunting engine at the railway crossing. The man's body was afterwards discovered severed into four parts. He leaves a widow and five children."

" Tollemache II. Capt. Kennedy II.
" Bentinck III. Mr. Cobden III.
Capt. Sterling (back). Capt. Stoney (back).

This was a good game, the hitting and combination being good on both sides. The Coldstream Guards won rather unexpectedly by 5 goals to 3. Capt. Stoney was not quite in his usual good form at back—and Mr. Bentinck for the Guards was left "loose" nearly the whole game—and consequently did most of the scoring. Capt. Sterling played a strong game at back for the Guards, and hit one very good goal from a penalty shot.

CASSA DI SCONTO E DI RISPARMIO

LE PROCES AZMY BEY.

A une demande de renseignements que nous avions adressée à Azmy Bey au sujet de l'assignation lancée par lui contre la Cassa di Sconto, il nous a répondu par la lettre suivante: Monsieur le Directeur

de l'"Egyptian Gazette,"
J'ai l'honneur de vous adresser réception de votre honore en date d'hier, et vous remercie de votre offre courtoise.
Cependant, j'ai le regret de décliner cette offre, car j'estime qu'il est préférable de laisser la Justice se prononcer sur le procès que j'intente à la Cassa, sans faire précéder le jugement que je sollicite par des considérations de presse, basées sur l'opinion de l'un ou l'autre des partis en cause.

Toutefois, et si mon désir du silence se trouve un jour changé par l'attitude des organes de nos adversaires, je vous prie de me réserver votre sollicitude et l'appui de votre estimable journal, car ma cause est celle surtout de ceux qui ne peuvent ou qui n'osent se défendre contre les grands financiers.

Je vous prie d'agréer, Monsieur le Directeur, l'assurance de ma haute considération.

AZMY.

A peine avions-nous reçu cette lettre qu'Azmy Bey se présentait lui-même à nos bureaux, plein d'indignation à la suite des faits que nous allons raconter:
Plusieurs banques de la ville sont en train d'exercer une pression sur leurs clients auxquels ils menacent de couper tout crédit et de réclamer leurs comptes courants, s'ils ne rallient à l'action intentée par Azmy Bey à la Cassa di Sconto. L'une d'elles, en autres, a obligé un ingénieur bien connu de notre ville à retirer sa signature de la liste des actionnaires adhérents à la cause d'Azmy Bey. Cet ingénieur a dû bon gré mal gré s'exécuter pour ne pas s'exposer à perdre un crédit que ses entreprises rendent absolument indispensables. D'autres personnes ayant apposé leur signature à la liste ont aussi été l'objet de menaces analogues et sont venues chez Azmy Bey lui réclamer le retrait de leur signature.

Devant l'exposé de telles mesures et sur le désir exprimé par Azmy Bey, nous ne pouvons que nous abstenir de tous commentaires et laisser le public juger de l'affaire.
Azmy Bey croit savoir qu'il n'y aura pas de convocation de l'Assemblée générale, puisque les liquidateurs ont nommé de nombreux avocats parmi les plus en vue. Que le conseil attaqué par lui se défende, fort bien, dit Azmy Bey, mais l'intervention des liquidateurs lui paraît déplacée. Que demande-t-il, en effet? la vérification des comptes et la communication aux actionnaires de la situation. Pour couper court à toute l'affaire, les liquidateurs n'ont donc qu'à fournir les éclaircissements demandés.

CHOLERA AT CONSTANTINOPLE.

THE SULTAN'S FEARS.

The Ottoman Sanitary Delegate at Alexandria has received a telegram from Constantinople to the effect that the Superior Board of Health at Constantinople has decided, owing to the outbreak of cholera among the Russian pilgrims at Sinoe, to oblige all persons arriving from Sinoe to undergo a medical visit in other Ottoman ports.

The following is the full report of the Constantinople correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph" on which our special service telegram of the 27th inst. was based:—

Great alarm has been caused in high quarters by the discovery last week in Stamboul of a fatal case of cholera, followed by another, which was not fatal. Both occurred among a batch of pilgrims, who had come on to Constantinople after having gone through five days' quarantine at Sinoe. The whole batch has now been sent to a lazaretto, and orders come from the palace for severe measures to be taken for the future. Owing to a prophecy of a gypsy before he ascended the throne, the Sultan has always been terribly afraid of cholera and plague, and at the slightest signs of either of these diseases he sends irades to the Board of Health, ordering all sorts of measures to be taken, and the Board of Health has a very bad time trying to make reasonable arrangements. In order to prevent any further danger from pilgrims, of whom enormous numbers from Russia, Caucasus, Afghanistan, Persia, and Bokhara are passing through the Bosphorus on their way to Mecca, it has been ordered that all are to undergo five days' quarantine at Sinoe, in the Black Sea, after which steamers are to embark them at Sinoe and take them direct to Djeddah, not stopping at Constantinople at all.

This is most inconvenient to the pilgrims and the business world in Constantinople; some 20,000 or 30,000 pilgrims pass this way, and as they look upon Constantinople as the place to make their final arrangements, they bring with them carpets, rugs, etc., for sale, and buy all the necessaries for the voyage, and also a large amount of sight-seeing in the capital of the Caliph. They are the natural prey of a large number of touts, who rob and swindle them as much as possible, so that altogether they represent the loss of a large amount of money to the town.

A few years ago a most ingenious swindle was perpetrated on a party of pilgrims. The Fledjog railway was then first heard of, and a tout told the pilgrims that he would send them by rail to Mecca at a cost of £1 a head, instead of £2, as the steamers were taking to Djeddah. The pilgrims were delighted, and he collected £1 from each and took them to the funicular railway from Galata to Pera, and at the cost of one penny each placed them in a carriage and told them they would get out at Mecca. The train ran about three minutes up the hill to Pera underground, and returns immediately. After the pilgrims had made several trips the officials noticed them, and their explanations began, and the pilgrims were turned out to try and catch the tout.

NEW GERMAN HOSPITAL.

Since its foundation half a century ago the founders and many of the sisters have long since left, as well as many doctors who have efficaciously contributed to the progress of the hospital; I would especially mention the chief doctor, Dr. Varenhorst Pasha, no more of this world. The present hospital, whose building is old and dilapidated, no longer meeting the wants of a modern house for the sick, has obliged us to commence the construction of a new hospital. But the spirit which has reigned for fifty years in our hospital, the spirit of trust in God, self-denial, sense of duty, and fidelity even unto death, still reigns among the sisters and will enter the new hospital and will grow and flourish. In proceeding under such auspices to lay the foundation stone of this hospital we need not be anxious for the future. We thank the Sovereign of this country for the interest which he takes in our hospital.

Concordia parvae crescunt. Discordia maximae dilabuntur. Concord makes the small prosper, discord ruins the great. There has existed in latter years in politics much misunderstanding between Great Britain and Germany, happily now dissipated. Let the example of our hospital, where Great Britain and Germany work hand in hand for charity with great success, serve to strengthen the bonds between the two peoples so that they may know each other better and better.

Mr. Wunderlich's speech was followed by a hymn, after which Mr. Ehrlich described the technical details of the construction. The documents were then handed to Mrs. Wunderlich, who placed them in the stone with the local newspapers of the day and Egyptian coins. The stone was laid by Mr. Wunderlich, who gave it three blows with the hammer, and blows were afterwards given by Count Bernstorff, Youssef Pasha Zia, Mustapha Pasha Ibad, Chataway Bey, Mr. E.B. Gould, the president and members of the committee, the leading members of the German colony, Mr. Binder-nagel and Mr. von Tschudi of the Swiss Colony, Ven. Archdeacon Ward, and the Evangelical priest of the German Church, who gave prayer. The ceremony was concluded with a hymn and at five o'clock, after partaking of liberal refreshments, the assembly dispersed. In the evening an unofficial banquet was held at the New Khedivial Hotel, at which 130 persons were present, and Mr. Wunderlich took the chair. An excellent dinner was served and many congratulations were showered upon Mr. Riensperger, the popular manager of the New Khedivial. In the centre of the table an excellent model of the new hospital of two square metres attracted attention and was illuminated by electric light.

SUDAN BUDGET.

The Sudan Budget for 1908 which we publish below contains no marked diversion from the lines of those of previous years, and once more the Egyptian Government will have every reason to be satisfied with the march of events in the Sudan territories. The payment of L.E. 45,000 is a first step towards the financial independence of the country, this payment being of course equivalent to a reduction of the sum hitherto allotted to the Sudan by the Egyptian Government. As regards the budget of 1907 a substantial surplus is expected, provided that receipts continue to come in up to a normal standard, and certain economies which have been made in the new Budget should further add to the amount which will be passed to the Reserve Fund in order to meet some of the most urgent demands for capital expenditure throughout the country.

It must, however, be borne in mind that this year has been an unfortunate one as far as the Sudan interests are involved, both the exceptionally low Nile and the repeated attacks of the locusts combining to reduce the receipts which will accrue to the budget of 1908, therefore when all this is considered, the increase of L.E. 175,000 estimated for in the budget of 1907 and provided for in the new budget may very possibly be rather in excess of the actual receipts to be obtained.

Agricultural receipts too, may now be said to have reached their maximum limit as the Sudan is not allowed to draw upon the water supply of the Nile except during flood.

Of course in the above no consideration is taken of the imports to the Sudan on which Customs are levied at Egyptian Ports, and retained by the Egyptian Government.

The following are the receipts. The figures are in L.E., the first figures representing the 1908 budget and the second the 1907 budget:—

Among the latest arrivals at Shepherd's Hotel, Cairo, is Mr. Henry Willard Denison, Legal Adviser to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs at Tokio and Delegate at the late Peace Conference at the Hague. Mr. Denison's position in Japan is unique, for twenty-five years he has been the trusted adviser in all diplomatic affairs of the Japanese Government. Each succeeding cabinet has recognised his worth, and insisted upon his retention. His advice and guidance has influenced most of Japan's foreign policy, while there are few domestic concerns of importance where his knowledge and judgment have not been used to great advantage by the Japanese Government. The great work of Treaty Revision was entrusted to his supervision. In the war with China he framed the treaty at the end of hostilities. At Portsmouth, where he accompanied Baron Komura, when Witte and Komura had concluded peace it was Mr. Denison who was designated as the Japanese delegate, to frame the argument and draw up the treaty that was signed later. For his services in promoting the Anglo-Japanese Alliance Mr. Denison received the grand Cordon of the Rising Sun, a decoration never before given to a foreigner. Mr. Denison will remain during the winter in Egypt, returning to his post in the spring.

BULLETIN DE LA BOURSE.

(Aujourd'hui à midi)

Notre marché a présenté ce matin le même aspect qu'hier, c'est-à-dire qu'il y a eu de la fermeté; les vendeurs s'étant retirés en grande partie dans l'attente de meilleurs prix, les hausseurs en ont profité pour pousser les cours et il y ont parfaitement réussi. L'attention s'est principalement concentrée sur la National Bank, l'Agricole, le Crédit Franco-Egyptien, la Land Bank, le Comptoir, la Levico, l'Hélovan et l'Ordinary Khedivial Mail. Il s'agit en général de demande sans contre-partie. C'est précisément l'inverse de ce qui se passe, lorsque les offres affaiblissent sans trouver d'acheteurs. D'un côté comme de l'autre les affaires sont clairsemées et plus la contre-partie est difficile à trouver plus les oscillations de la cote prennent d'envergure. Pour tout dire, l'amélioration constatée sur la Bourse de Paris en valeurs égyptiennes a été pour beaucoup dans la fermeté de notre marché.

Il a été vendu aux enchères publiques 100 Karam à 7/32-1/4.

L'Agricole est recherchée à 7/8. La National Bank progresse de 20 1/2 à 20 5/8, la Delta de 12 5/8 à 12 11/16, et l'Obligation Crédit Foncier de 285 1/2 à 286 1/2 l'ancienne et de 252 à 253 la nouvelle.

En avance également les Dividendes Tramways d'Alexandrie de 270 à 272, l'Alexandria Water de 10 1/8 à 10 1/4, les Jouissances Eaux du Canal de 177 à 180, la Banque d'Athènes de 112 à 112 3/4, la Land Bank de 7 1/8 à 7 3/16, l'Urbaine de 3 1/8 à 3 1/4, et le Crédit Franco-Egyptien de 4 1/2 à 4 1/8.

Dans la catégorie des titres secondaires, les Cotton Mills remontent de 1/4 à 1/3, la Casa di Sconto de 42 à 42 1/2, l'Ordinary Khedivial Mail de 22/6 à 23/6, les Estates de 13/32 à 7/16, la Building Lands de 1/9 1/16 à 1/9 3/16, la Levico de 5/16 à 5/8, l'Hélovan de 1/8 à 5/32 et la Delta Land fléchit de 1/5 1/16 à 1/9 3/16 délaissée et le Comptoir de 2 19/32 à 2 9/16.

Sur le reste de la cote il n'y a pas de changements à signaler. La tendance reste ferme et pour la hausse, tant que de bonnes nouvelles continueront à nous arriver du dehors.

The forecast of President Roosevelt's message has contributed to a revival in Wall Street owing to the moderation of its tone. He favours the issue of emergency currency secured by bonds, which would be taxed sufficiently to enforce their redemption when the emergency was past. He advises the federal supervision of corporations, which would restore confidence in their stocks and remedy abuses. He does not object to railways combining under the restrictions safeguarded by the interstate commission which should be empowered to control the fresh issue of stock. He favours tariff revision after the presidential election, and urges the construction of four very large battleships armed with the largest guns. 1,500,000 dollars worth of gold was engaged to-day for import to America. CAIRO'S HOUSING PROBLEM.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "EGYPTIAN GAZETTE"

Sir,—I had hoped before intruding on your space to read the advantage of reading some further correspondence on the subject of the housing problem referred to by "Interested" in your issue of the 16th inst. but as none has so far appeared, I forward my small contribution on this interesting subject.

I do not think that the proposition made by "Interested" viz.: that the Government should build dwelling houses in Cairo in which to house the government employees is one which would commend itself. There are many objections to the Government making itself the landlord of employees owing allegiance to a dozen different countries, and one shudders to think what would be the outcome of disputes between landlord and tenant; the possible and more than probable complications would be infinite. Further, in the opinion of many, Cairo is already overbuilt and overcrowded, and open spaces rather than huge blocks of buildings are the first desideratum, but I am not qualified to express a personal opinion on this point. Further I am given to understand that the Government does not now possess in the city itself any suitable sites for residential purposes—and to buy at the present high prices any suitable sites so far as position and healthy surroundings are concerned is quite out of the question—for the purchase money for the land itself would preclude, owing to the interest charge, the building of "skyscrapers" even, which could be let off as apartments at rentals within the means of the lower paid employees. It must not be forgotten that large airy apartments are wanted, for I take it for granted that the married employees would have first consideration; contracted, stuffy rooms are not the best adapted for the healthy upbringing of children—and such places do not conduce to the health of the head of the family either.

A solution for the housing problem must be looked for outside the city itself—in the respective suburbs, and now that communication by rail and tram is so extended and improved, the problem is greatly simplified. (To avoid any misconception, let me say at once that the only piece of land I possess is situated at Old Cairo, so that "Interested" and others may rest assured that I am not by some side issue trying to work off another speculative land boom; I do not even like to speculate over that diminutive plot I possess.)

Years since, before a land boom was even thought of, hundreds, nay thousands of building plots were disposed of by the government and private individuals at prices ranging from a few paras to a few piastres the metre, and with the exception of one district, but a small proportion of these sites have been utilised owing to the then absence of rapid and frequent communication—a matter which I have already pointed out has of recent years been remedied.

It would not be possible without a canvass to ascertain how many of these unused sites are still held by government employees, but it would be quite safe to say that some hundreds are. What then is required is a financial group, a local one by preference, who would be prepared to advance capital to Government employees (and may be permanent residents) with which to construct cottages or bungalows on building sites already belonging to them. Such structures should be well built, and if not aesthetic should be at least pleasing to the eye externally, and comfortable internally. The financial group might constitute itself its own contractors for building, or in the event of a technical employee choosing to superintend the work for himself or any of his colleagues, an expert of the group might be appointed to check off quantities—and this more as a matter of form. In the event of an 'outside' contractor being employed, the expert of the group would of course have a heavier task to perform, but then the financial group and the one for whom the house was being built would be mutually interested in ensuring against scamped work or the employment of inferior material and fittings.

An interest charge would be made on the sum advanced (representing actual rental) and to this should be added an amortization charge, so that in a few years time the employee becomes his own land-lord. It is not necessary now to enter into details as to the interest to be charged or the amortization to be arranged for, the first would not of course exceed the legal rate and most likely would be much below, while the second is one to be arranged for by mutual agreement; nor need I now refer to the question of "surrender" in the event of the householder being transferred to another town or district, or leaving the country, suffice to say that the subject has been well considered.

It will have been at once seen how advantageous the arrangement I have suggested would be to the land-owning employee and any financial group, syndicate, or company formed to advance the required capital; the former would not have included in his rental an interest charge on the purchase price of the land upon which his house is built—as it already belongs to him, while the latter would not be called upon to sink capital in building sites which might or might not be taken up, they would only have to provide, as required, the capital requisite for buildings which would bring in immediate returns, and they would be more than guaranteed against any risk of loss by the temporary cession to them of the title deeds to the land pending the amortization of the debt.

The foregoing is but a very bare outline of a

UN PARTI REPUBLICAIN EN EGYPT

Monsieur le Directeur,
J'ai lu dans votre excellent journal la nouvelle qui vous est parvenue de source sûre, selon l'expression de votre correspondant, qu'un parti républicain était en voie de formation au Caire et prendrait place parmi les Partis politiques existants.

Je tiens à exprimer à "l'Egyptian Gazette" mon admiration pour avoir publié une si importante nouvelle avant tout autre journal et aussi pour la célérité de son service d'informations; mais mon étonnement est grand lorsque le correspondant de la "Gazette" dit tenir la nouvelle de source autorisée.

Point de doute sur la formation du Parti Républicain, car des patriotes avisés se sont assemblés pour discuter la situation actuelle et ont résolu, non seulement de fonder le Parti, mais d'élaborer son programme et de soumettre prochainement Programme et Parti à l'opinion publique.

Il serait surprenant que je décrive ici l'utilité de ce Parti, car il aura un journal qui sera chargé de propager et de défendre l'idéal de la République Égyptienne. Le Parti tiendra sa première séance dans les premiers jours de décembre prochain et dans le local d'un des principaux cercles du Caire; alors l'opinion publique Égyptienne se rendra un compte exact des principes, du but et de la volonté du Parti Républicain Égyptien.

Pour le moment j'affirmerai avec une entière franchise que la fondation du Parti Républicain en ce moment aura un retentissement assez considérable, car c'est une révolution d'utilité générale. Au cas où il me paraîtrait urgent de tenir l'opinion au courant par la voie de votre estimable journal, j'aurais recours à votre gracieuse hospitalité pour une autre lettre.

Avec mes remerciements croyez moi, Monsieur le Directeur, votre très dévoué,

MOHAMED GANEM.

Le Caire, le 28 Novembre 1907.

EGYPT 100 YEARS AGO.

THE ENGLISH AT ALEXANDRIA.

(From "The Times," November 25, 1807)
Translation of a Turkish Dispatch presented by his Excellency Mouhammed Ali Pasha, Governor of Egypt, to his Highness the Caimakan Pasha.

[Upon the upper margin, to the left, is written the following note, in red letters, probably by the Reis Effendi: "This is a dispatch of your slave, Mouhammed Ali Pasha, Governor of Egypt."]

"To his Highness the most High, most Fortunate, most Generous Lord, my most Respectable and most Honoured Brother.

"The supreme will of his Highness being, that the impure presence of the English infidels, who had at the time taken possession, by surprise, of the fortress of Alexandria, should cease to sully this territory, and that the said fortress should be with the help of the Most High, retaken, and submitted to its lawful possessor, in order to conform to the noble command, the frontispiece of which was decorated with the sacred character of the Imperial hand, and addressed to the Undersigned, his most humble slave, I hastened to assemble every thing that was necessary to the success of this military expedition; and from the first day of the moon of Djemazi-oughra (about the 8th August), I set off from Cairo at the head of all the cavalry, and the flower of the infantry, and marched straight against the enemy.

"I pitched my camp in the plain of Damien-khor, six leagues from the place called Sed, an entrenched post of the English. I sent during the night a few of the light horse to the spot, for the purpose of reconnoitering the position of the English, and the means to be taken for surrounding them. I marched forward myself, and secured the most proper place for the raising of my batteries, and for the introduction of the armed boats and gun-barks into the two lakes, which are upon both flanks of the Sed. This operation, performed in the silence of the night, having lasted for some time, could not be concealed from the knowledge of the boats which the enemy kept stationed upon the lakes. Accordingly, he fired many cannon shots, which happily did us no damage. However, this first movement on our part had already given him the alarm, and the next day we saw arrive, with the Major who had been sent to me twice before as a negotiator, the second in command of the English forces, accompanied by two other persons, and who took the title of Plenipotentiary, appointed both by the Commander of the squadron, and by the General of the land forces to conclude peace. The Plenipotentiary produced in support of his character his credentials. The sense of these writings, the language of the bearer, and the result of the conference, amounted upon the whole to these few words:—

'Is not the demand you make, in the name of his Highness your powerful Emperor, the restoration of the fortress of Alexandria? Return us our prisoners who fell into your hands in the two engagements which took place at Rosetta, and we will return you the said place. I should also have restored to you the three armed ships of his Highness, had they not been sent to England; and I hereby formally engage to get them directly sent back to the Sublime Porte.'

"These propositions, which the English made without there being yet any attack on either side, having been weighed in Council, were accepted. It was considered that though the Infidels employ cunning and craft, the sword of the true Faith always predominates. On the other hand it was observed, that the post of Sed could not be carried, without landing troops there; and that, on account of the ground which the Nile leaves uncovered in its ordinary course, the landing depends absolutely on the great increase of the waters of that river, which, having inundated the whole surface of the earth, would everywhere favour the entrance of the boats and the gunbarks. Now the overflow of the Nile has been middling this year, and does not allow these barks to venture into this shallow water. It would, no doubt, be possible to take vengeance, by another means, of our enemies; but if we gave them time, they might receive succours and reinforcements. From these considerations, we confined ourselves to requiring some other conditions, and the accommodation was signed.

"I directly dispatched to Alexandria my Riahia, Intendant and Lieutenant, Manhommed Aga, in order to take immediate possession of the town and fortifications, of the artillery, warlike stores, and other things most essential; and I myself, to-day, Tuesday, 19th of the Moon Redjele (22 Sept.) made my entry into this town which have been at length purged of the infidels who sullied it and is now returned under the Musselman dominion, glory be to the Most High. So great a favour from the God of Mercy, and the signal grace which he vouchsafed to the most feeble of his slaves, in taking him for the instrument of the recapture of Alexandria, and of the execution of the Imperial will, must be exclusively attributed to the infinite merit of his Highness, my most formidable, most powerful, and very miraculous Emperor and Master, and imputed to his fortunate star."

CONSTIPATION.

To ensure a natural movement of the bowels, it is most important to take plenty of exercise every day. Many men and women don't do this, and they become more or less constipated, sometimes going two or three days without a passage from the bowels. This is a very serious thing, not only because constipation makes our food and blood impure, but because the prolonged presence of waste matter in the bowels strains the muscular walls, eventually paralysing them, so that instruments have to be used to remove the impurities.

Those who cannot get enough exercise, or whose work is sedentary, should use Doan's Dinner Pills, which are made from pure roots and herbs that act on the bowels, invigorating the muscular walls, and toning up the nerves, liver, stomach, and whole digestive organism. Doan's Dinner Pills soften the mass of clogging waste, preventing piles, and inflammation of intestines; and they cure sluggish liver, indigestion, biliousness, headache, poor appetite, impoverished blood, and every symptom of liver, stomach, or bowel trouble.

Doan's Dinner Pills are sold by all chemists and druggists, at 5 P.T. per box, or 30 P.T. for six boxes; or they may be bought direct from the agents from Egypt, Mr. E. Del Mar, Rue Hotel du Nil, and Rue Mousky, Cairo; Rue Tewfik, (opposite the Bourse), Alexandria, and Rue Commerciale, Port Said; and Messrs. S. Fischer & Co., Rue Cherif Pasha, Alexandria.

INSECT BITES poison the skin, and often lead to distressing skin disease. Doan's Ointment draws out and neutralizes the poison from insect bites; it heals the pores, and cures itching skin diseases—Eczema, Piles, etc. The price of Doan's Ointment is 13 P.T. a pot, and it is sold by all chemists and druggists, or it may be had direct from the agents for Egypt, Mr. E. Del Mar, Rue Hotel du Nil and Rue Mousky, Cairo; Rue Tewfik, (opposite the Bourse), Alexandria; and Rue Commerciale, Port Said; and Messrs. S. Fischer & Co., Rue Cherif Pasha, Alexandria.

COLEMAN'S WINCARNIS

To avoid loss of mental and physical stamina, and to fortify your constitution against disease and exhaustion, take Coleman's Wincarnis.

Coleman's "Wincarnis" is a delightful restorative when increase of nourishment is called for in case of exhaustion, nervous debility, or during convalescence after a lingering illness. It prolongs life by the natural means of invigorating the blood, bracing the nerves, and strengthening the system. It prevents the physical fitness deteriorating, maintains stamina, and enables a poor circulation to resist cold and infection. Anæmia and palpitation benefit by its use. It is equally good for those who are comparatively well, by keeping them well.

AN IDEAL PICK-ME-UP, Suitable for all Climates.

Over 8,000 Testimonials received from the Medical Profession.

THE PROOF OF MERIT.
16 St. Dunstan's Road, "The Fosse," Leicester.
September 13th, 1907.
Dear Sirs,—Before taking "Wincarnis" as a tonic I had been for many months completely "run-down," and consequently very depressed, debilitated and low-spirited. After taking "Wincarnis" I began to improve. After three bottles I felt better, and my friends remarked how much brighter I appeared. I feel quite cheerful now, and, thanks to "Wincarnis," have had no return of the dreaded periods of depression.—Yours faithfully,
BELLA WARD.

AFTER AN ATTACK OF INFLUENZA.
13 Stephenson St., Canning Town, E.
September 15th, 1907.
Dear Sirs,—A few months ago, after a severe attack of "Influenza," I felt very weak and exhausted. I was advised to try "Wincarnis," purchased a large bottle, and found on taking it that it pulled me round remarkably well. I shall always recommend your Wine Tonic to all my friends.—Yours truly,
EMILY GREEN.

A REMEDY FOR BRAIN STRAIN.
59 Cantelupe Road, East Grinstead,
September 13th, 1907.
Dear Sirs,—After testing the free sample of "Wincarnis" which I sent for, I purchased three bottles and found it answered the purpose for which I bought them. Being a journalist my work is a great strain on the brain, but as a nerve bracing tonic, when I feel "run down," I find your "Wincarnis" does its invigorating work most admirably.—Yours faithfully,
W. PRESTON.
